You'll find all kinds of historical cars on Line 42 — the oldest date back to the time of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy, but there are also cars from the 1950s to the 1970s. In addition to those listed here, you'll encounter quite a few other interesting specimens.

car #351

This unique tram, which lived through the refined times of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, will win you over with its functionality — it even served as a snow plow and company tram.

The golden era of the First Republic is commemorated in this car. Because the First Republic is no more — just like the two-axle trams — a ride in this tram is even more special!

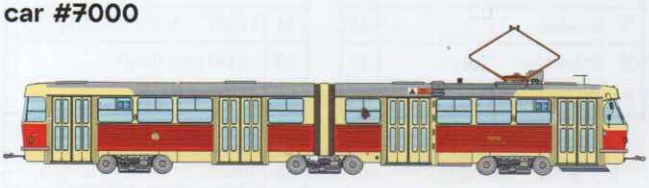
The oldest preserved model T3 tram in the world?! Don't miss the chance to ride in the period interior of this world-famous electric tram!

car #7000



Dated 1977, this tram plied the streets of Bratislava to train drivers. Retired in 2009, it barely escaped the scrapyard and now you can enjoy a ride on this unique tram.
